

Code correction

GitHub Copilot assists in detecting and correcting coding errors. For instance, if there is a syntax error in your Java code, Copilot highlights the issue and suggests corrections.

Code review and static code analysis: Copilot aids in code review by analysing the code for potential issues and suggesting improvements. It also performs static code analysis, helping to maintain code quality and adherence

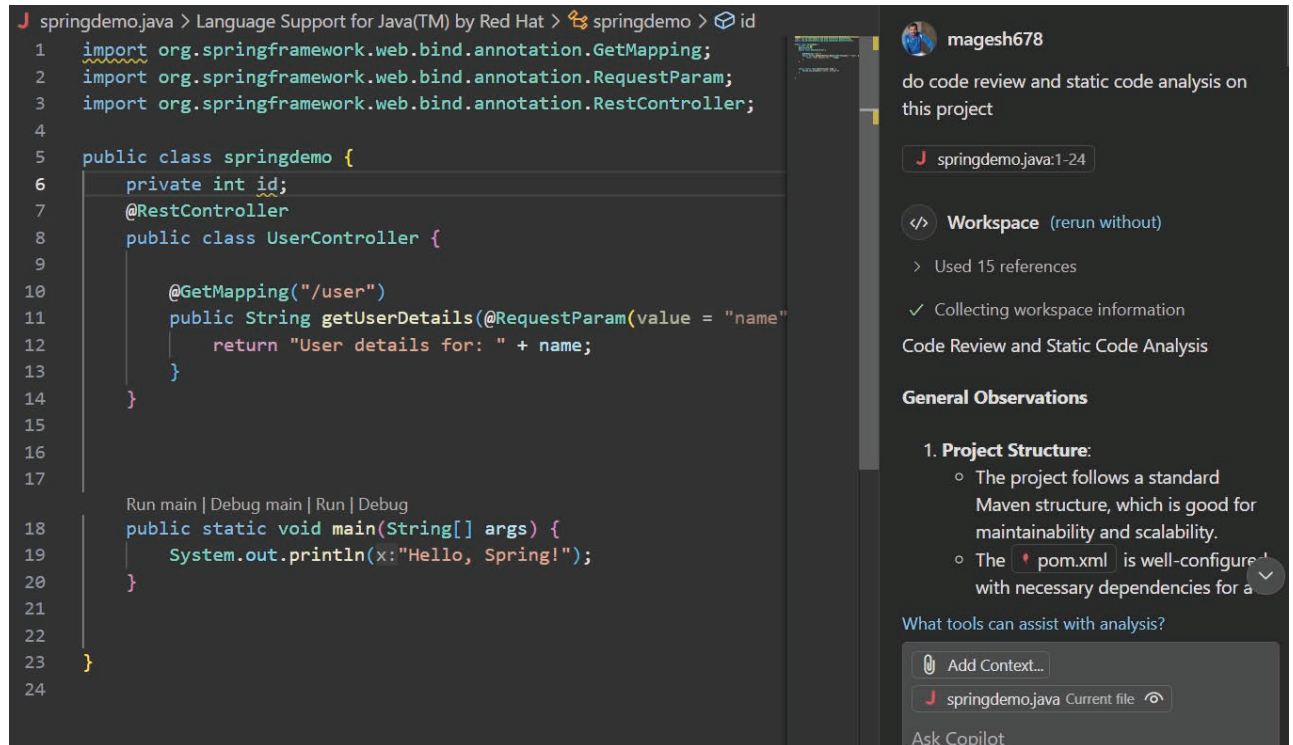

Figure 4: Code review

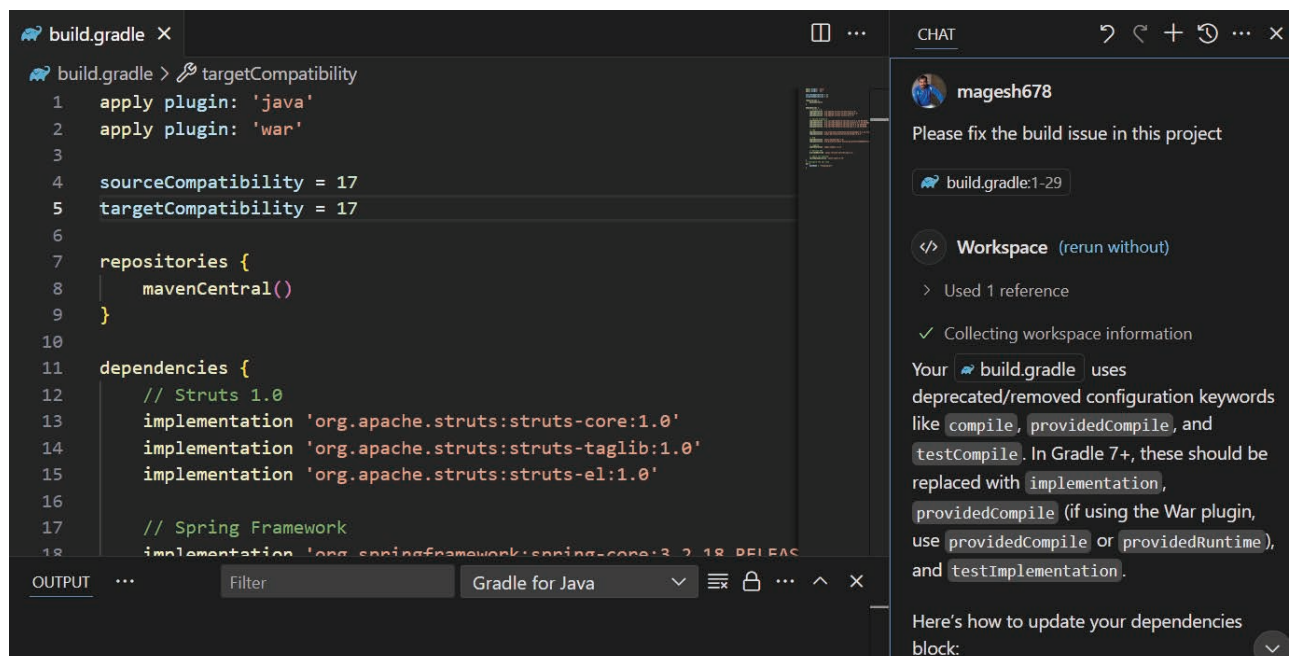

Figure 5: Build issues