

Sanjay Mantri, director, Oracle India, shared insights on Oracle's open source journey during his session

Ramesh Srinivasan, senior director, Oracle Linux & Virtualisation, conducted a keynote session on the 'State of the Penguin and the Dolphin'

Jose Miguel Parrilla, CTO-M3O, Microsoft Corp., talked of how Microsoft endorses 'openness' in his keynote address

Rajiv Pandey, distinguished technologist, HP Cloud, gave a keynote session on 'Deployment Architecture for OpenStack in the Enterprise'

Kamal Brar, VP, APAC MongoDB, gave a keynote session on the path to innovation

Prayush Mathur, senior solutions adviser, Zimbra, talked about secure collaboration for the cloud

Vikram Bhatia, director, technical evangelism for HP Cloud, compared enterprise cloud platforms and technologies in his talk

Ryusuke Kajiyama, MySQL sales consulting manager, JAPAC, talked of the ways in which management efficiency and cloud sales could be improved for MySQL

Pooja Maheshwari, technical architect, Transilys, showed the road to a mature mobile enterprise

Jacob Singh, regional director, Acquia Inc., talked about personalisation on the Web, the Drupal Way

Michael Meskes, CEO, Creditativ International GmbH, conducted an interesting session on how the open source community could meet with businesses

Aahit Gaba, open source attorney, Iyra Infosystems Pvt Ltd, shared information on how to license the mobile app

Sandipan Chattopadhyay, CTO, Justdial, shared the very interesting journey of open source at Justdial

Sanil Kumar D., from Huawei Technologies India, gave a detailed talk on the Input Output Memory Management Unit (IOMMU)

Anthony Rees, HP Cloud, talked on transforming businesses with DevOps and open hybrid clouds

Krisna Kumar, architect, HP, talked about Tralodon - an enterprise-class SQL based on the Hadoop DBMS engine