

YOU SAID IT

A thumbs-up for the OSFY DVD

I bought the November issue of OSFY and I loved the FreeBSD OS. I just want to thank the OSFY team for providing such useful operating systems to its readers so that we may try out the latest technologies open source offers.

ED: Thanks for the compliment, Parveen. It's good to know that you've been a regular reader and like our DVDs so much.

Buying previous issues of OSFY

I would love to get previous issues of OSFY (from January 2013 to October 2014). Is there a way I can buy these from you? I would really appreciate it if I could!

ED: Sure, you can definitely get all the previous issues of OSFY! All you need to do is to write to our support team at support@efy.in

In search of code review tools

I am looking for open source code review software that can be installed on Windows servers for free with an integrating SVN. It would be a boon if it integrates with Visual Studio.

ED: Thank you for your query. We have a Facebook page called Open Source For You for all the open source enthusiasts. You can post your query on the page and we are sure the community will respond with the right solutions.

From an ardent follower of OSFY's Facebook page

I am a big follower of the Facebook page 'Open Source For You' as it offers a lot on open source. I am new to computer engineering and I want to know more about the Linux operating system. Can you suggest how I can learn to excel in programming while using open source. That would be a great help.

—Mearyg Taddese

ED: Thank you for 'liking' our Facebook page. We wish to continue sharing important content related to FOSS. You may post this query on our page and you will definitely get a suitable reply from the open source community.

Suggestion for the 'Tips & Tricks' section

I am an avid reader of OSFY and I love the contents of the magazine, particularly the ideas you share in the section 'Tips & Tricks'. These are quite useful and interesting and I never fail to implement them. Keeping this in mind, I have a suggestion: why don't you introduce a new section based only on Linux recipes. It will be a success.

—Ashish Kumar,
ashish.kumar11@outlook.com

ED: Thank you, Ashish, for such valuable feedback. It is always a treat to know that people are not just reading our magazine but gaining knowledge from it. We will surely give a thought to introducing a section on Linux recipes. Till then, keep reading OSFY!

On writing for OSFY

I love reading OSFY and now it has inspired me to also contribute content to your magazine since I, too, am an open source enthusiast. Can you please explain the procedure and also the eligibility criteria for contributing content to your magazine?
