

“Whether it is Fedora, Ubuntu or SUSE on your desktop, it is okay as long as you are using a Linux environment”

Fedora lost its throne to Ubuntu some years back but the team at Red Hat, a major sponsor of Fedora, is unaffected by it. It is confident of Fedora's unique capabilities and believes that if open source flourishes, Fedora will also grow automatically. Diksha P Gupta from Open Source For You spoke to Harish Pillay, Global Head, Community Architecture and Leadership, Red Hat, about how Fedora's position remains secure in the desktop market and about Red Hat's role in the project.
