

(L) NIMHANS Convention Centre, the venue for the three-day 'open-source' convention, ready to welcome FOSS enthusiasts. (R) A big 'Thank you' to the partners of the event for their support.

(L) Pramod K Vama, chief architect and technology advisor to the UIDAI Project, delivered the keynote address on 'Open Source and Commodity Computing in Government'. (R) Ujjwal Kumar, technical evangelist at Microsoft Corporation, India, talked about 'Design Principles for Building Great Apps'.

(L) Charles Jayawardena, business consultant, Virtusa Corp, Colombo, spoke about the 'Akura Open Source School Management System', on his left is Mr Thushera Kawadwatta (R) Piyush S Newe from EnterpriseDB Software India Pvt Ltd spoke about 'Database Sharding'.

(L) The exhibitors were benefited by the quality audience that turned up at the event. (R) Ryusuke Kajiyama, MySQL pre-sales consulting manager, Asia Pacific & Japan, shared his experience during a hands-on workshop on MySQL performance tuning.

(L) The EFY Stall at OSI witnessed a good turn out. (R) Gaurav Agarwal from Sify Technologies spoke about 'Opening the Doors of the Cloud'.

