

Nevales Networks | Mumbai

The company offers emerging businesses a secure environment to conduct their operations on a 'pay as you use' model. Nevales manages security and connectivity, and enables cloud applications for businesses with 1 to 400 employees. Its major open source-based offerings include SNORT for intrusion prevention and ClamAV as an open source alternative to the commercial Trend Micro for Gateway Anti Virus.

Nevis Networks | Pune

Nevis Networks provides identity-based policy enforcement in the network fabric, controlling who can access a company's network and what resources they are permitted to use, as well as containing the spread of the most sophisticated malware. Its LANenforcer security appliances provide integrated NAC, IPS and identity firewall capabilities.

Peak XV | Bengaluru

Peak XV offers a complete end-to-end VPN solution that enables Clients to rapidly deploy Value-added VPN services. Peak XV has experience in building both network and CPE based VPNs from manufacturers such as Cisco, D-Link, Nortel etc.

Peak XV's Site-to-Site VPN and Remote Client VPN solutions, offers the right sized VPN solution suitable for enterprise data centers, regional and remote offices, and small office or home office (SOHO) locations, supporting a broad range of access technologies and VPN products. The company offers Anti-virus Policy, Planning and Design services, provided by a team of experienced security professionals, to help clients get the most from their anti-virus protection. It's UTM solutions are drawn from extensive portfolio of products from industry leaders which provide complete visibility of various network threats and performance.

SISA Information Security | Bengaluru

SISA is India's first PCI QSA organisation and continues to pioneer and lead the security industry within this sector. SISA's services within the PCI sector include PCI DSS validation, PA QSA validation, PCI ASV scanning, etc. Its major open source-based offerings include SMART-RA, which is a free formal risk assessment tool, wholly developed and offered by SISA. The tool helps organisations reduce expenditure on information security risk assessments by up to 60 per cent. The tool can be accessed at www.smart-ra.com.

Sify | Chennai

Sify offers the most comprehensive and proven security solutions for a diverse range of industry verticals, including banking, telco and IT/ITES, through consultancy services, customised products and cost-effective, need-based implementation. Sify partners with clients in developing tailored network solutions that are secure from all threats. Its range specifically covers firewalls/VPN, IPSEC VPN, IDS/IPS, antivirus, SPAM prevention, Web content filtering, UTM appliances, SSL VPN, WAN optimisation and security information management.

Tech Mahindra | Pune

The company specialises in helping customers implement security transformation plans and maintain an up-to-date security posture in a well-articulated, efficient and meticulous manner, across IT and business functions. The company's 'Entry-to-Exit' range of service offerings spanning consulting, systems integration, security testing and security operations, is designed to mitigate organisations' external and internal risks—both for their current and evolving business processes as well as their IT infrastructure. This ensures complete security for all aspects of the business. The company also provides systems integration services, deploying and customising security products across the application estate and network infrastructure.