

Open Source India 2013

OSI Days 2013 proved to be a special delight for exhibitors. They had some engrossing discussions with existing and future customers giving them newer business opportunities

Oracle's idea of having a workshop on-the-go was innovative and proved to be a major hit amongst the attendees

Exhibitors at OSI interacted and engaged with the open source lovers

LIFERAY attracted a lot of community members to its open source project

Microsoft's presence at OSI Days 2013 was a major attraction amongst the attendees

CDAC's mission of promoting open source technology got a special boost at OSI Days 2013

Even in its first year of participation at OSI Days, MongoDB could attract a quality audience

SUSE managed to gather lot of traction and business leads at OSI Days 2013

EnterpriseDB was one of the busiest spots at OSI Days 2013, courtesy its myriad offerings

Exhibit or breaks in between the sessions provided time for buyer customer meetings

IFTY threw in some special subscription offers for attendees of Open Source India 2013

Mandar Naik talking to FOSS lovers on Microsoft's openness

Unitech's presence at OSI Days 2013 garnered attention from the customers