Up your style quotient with Rapoo's multi-touch wireless mouse

If you are looking for a chic, wireless mouse with a glossy finish for your PC or laptop, Rapoo's wireless ultra-slim and multi-touch optical mouse, the T6, can be a good buy. The wireless mouse is compatible with both Linux and Windows OSs.

The mouse has no visible buttons and scroll wheel, and the multi-touch technology lets you scroll both vertically and horizontally. It also has a two-finger swipe gesture for 'back' and 'forward' commands for easy access. The key specs are a reliable 2.4 GHz wireless connection, a 360 degree wide range and a transmission distance of up to 10 metres, two-finger swipe for 'back' and 'forward' commands and new low-power consumption technology with a power on/off button. The Rapoo T6 mouse comes with a nano USB 2.0 connector, which connects with 2.4 G wireless transmission with a working range of up to 10m. Sunil Srivastava, manager, India Sales and Marketing for Rapoo, says, "The mouse is designed for all those PC users who have a penchant for style. It has all the advanced features that can beat our major competitors. We hope to launch some more such products in the coming days."
