extensive customer base worldwide. Partnering with open source communities is today an integral part of our strategy towards being more open ourselves, which is also evident in the fact that we now have a fully owned subsidiary called Microsoft Open Technologies Inc that was formed over a year ago."

This three-day mega event will provide a never before opportunity for almost anyone who wishes to stay ahead of the curve and tap the potential of the future—all of which is linked to open source. So, this November, all roads will lead to the NIMHANS Convention Centre in Bengaluru. Will you be there? END
