

Asia's #1 website on open source in an all-new avatar!

The advertisement features a central image of a desktop monitor, a tablet, and a smartphone, all displaying the OpenSourceForU.com website. The website layout includes a top navigation bar with links like 'Submit Tip', 'Subscribe to Print Edition', 'Magazine Feedback', 'Latest In Open Source', 'Write For Us', and 'Contact Us'. Below this is a main content area with several featured articles, including 'Automating pattern discovery with open source software' and 'Top community projects that start with word 'open''. Surrounding the devices are five circular icons connected by dashed lines to specific website features: 'Feature Stories' (yellow circle with a book icon), 'Tutorials' (orange circle with gear icons), 'Latest News' (yellow circle with a newspaper icon), 'Interviews from the world of open source' (pink circle with speech bubble icons), and 'Future of expense management software' (yellow circle with a calculator and coins icon).
