

“WE ARE TRANSFORMING THE CLASSROOM CULTURE IN MANY WAYS”

Today, MOOCs or massive open online courses are transforming the education environment. One of the pioneers in the field, the MIT and Harvard University-backed edX, has been very successful with its Open edX that offers a spectrum of courseware to all.

Jagmeet Singh of OSFY talked to Anant Agarwal, CEO of edX and MIT professor, for the details about the online platform. Edited excerpts:
