

IBM'S MANTRA OF 'CODE, CONTENT AND COMMUNITY' ENHANCES DEVELOPER ENGAGEMENT

Whether it is a large multinational or a medium-sized enterprise, the software industry depends a lot on disruptive ideas and out-of-the-box code development by individuals. Therefore, engagement between developers and the industry is indispensable. Here's an excerpt of an interview between Seema Kumar, country leader, IBM India and Nimeesh Kumar of Open Source For You.
