

Speakers from Harman Kardon with Amazon Alexa support now in India

Well-known manufacturer of audio equipment, Harman Kardon, recently launched its latest premium speakers – the Harman Kardon Allure. The highlight of the speakers is the support for Amazon's Alexa – a proprietary voice technology assistant, which can help users manage day-to-day tasks, such as playing music, making purchases, reading out the news, etc.

With a built-in four-microphone array and the latest voice technology, the speaker is capable of responding to commands even in noisy environments. It supports up to 24-bit/96kHz HD audio streaming and delivers 360-degree sound with its transducers and built-in sub-woofers.

The multi-coloured lighting on the top of the device adapts to the surrounding environment to help the speakers blend in.

The device supports Bluetooth v4.2, aux and WPS/Wi-Fi for connecting to all Android, iOS and Windows smartphones, laptops and TVs.

The Harman Kardon Allure is available by invitation only at Amazon.in.

Feature loaded mid-range smartwatch collection from Misfit

Misfit, the consumer electronics company owned by the Fossil group, has recently unveiled its much-awaited smartwatch collection called Vapor.

The all-in-one smartwatch collection comes with a stunning 3.53cm (1.39 inch) full round AMOLED display with a vibrant colour palette in 326 ppi (pixels per inch) and is designed with a 44mm satin-finish stainless steel upper casing.

Vapor is powered by Android 2.0, the latest wearable operating system. The 'OK Google' feature enables access to hundreds of top rated apps to get things done.

The devices' many features include a useful customised watch face, an enhanced fitness experience, on-board music functionality, the Google assistant, limitless apps, etc.

The smartwatches come with the Qualcomm Snapdragon Wear 2100 processor and 4GB memory with Bluetooth and Wi-Fi connectivity. Water-resistant to 50 metres, the Vapor range allows users to browse the menu of applications to respond to notifications easily.

Fitness features include a calorie counter, as well as a distance and heart rate monitor. The smartwatches also offer sensors such as an accelerometer, gyroscope, etc, and can be paired with any device running Android 4.3 or iOS9 and above.

The Misfit Vapor collection can be purchased from Flipkart.
